

Solution- Dubai Sira Exam Question Paper

Part 1: True or False

1. Security Officer would not be a deterrent to crime. - False
2. Passes issued to visitors should not include the date of issue or expiry. - False
3. Slips, trips, and falls are common causes for accidents. - True
4. The purpose of access control is to control exit from the premises. - False
5. All security companies need not register their activities with the SAIRA and obtain a license. - False
6. Passes issued to visitors should have a date of expiry on them. - True
7. A Security Officer can conduct a search without permission of the person being searched. - False
8. While searching, words like "please" and "thank you" help to maintain a normal atmosphere. - True
9. Illness can't be considered to be an emergency. - False
10. Service providers must renew their employee's licenses within 11 days of their expiry. - True
11. Using a radio to report a suspicious device may lead to an explosion should the device be remotely controlled. - True
12. When searching vehicles, the driver should be asked to switch off the engine. - True
13. A guard should never be concerned about other people's safety before that of their own. - False
14. DISCRIMINATION is when you treat another person differently due to his race or color. - True
15. Hearsay evidence is acceptable in court. - False
16. A security Guard's employer is an example of an external client. - False
17. It is not permitted to discuss what a guard does at his workplace with family and friends. - False
18. A hazardous chemical sign has the details of the type of hazard and the UN identification number. - True
19. Licenses for Security Guards in Dubai are issued by the Dubai Police Academy. - False
20. A Security Guard should always carry his pocket book. - True
21. A visitor register records details of any accidents a visitor might have while on-site. - False
22. A security guard is not permitted to search anyone on their site without their permission. - False
23. Security Guards in Dubai must have a good command of English or Urdu languages. - True
24. Assignment Instructions are a good reference manual for security guards. - True
25. The purpose of access control is to control fire from the premises. - False
26. Stereotyping is not a good and positive way of judging people. - True
27. Security Officers should not have good communication skills. - False
28. The maximum age for a security guard in Dubai is 65. - False

29. Assertive behavior is not positive behavior. - False
30. Aggressive behavior is positive behavior. - False
31. Criminal Law generally refers to laws which carry a state penalty. - True
32. Never use a mobile phone to report a Bomb Threat. - False
33. Passive behavior is the undesired behavior for security guards. - True
34. SIRA is not responsible for the regulation and supervision of the security industry in Dubai. - False
35. SIRA is responsible for regulating the security Industry in UAE. - True
36. Access control is not only for ENTRY. - True
37. Using a radio to report a suspicious device can never lead to an explosion. - False
38. Security Guards in Dubai should have a good command over English or Arabic. - True
39. It is the responsibility of all security to know the health and safety signs in their country. - True
40. P.O.P. does not stand for People; Objectives; Places. - False
41. The Security guard's employer is an example of an internal customer. - True
42. The third step in SAFER is to "Find Help". - True
43. A security guard should try to avoid conflicts by dealing with the problem. – True

45. Criminal Law generally does not refer to laws which carry a state penalty. - False
46. One need not always CONTROL AGGRESSION when dealing with conflict. - False
47. Aggressive behavior will make the security guard more effective in handling conflicts. - False
48. Assertive behavior will make the guard more effective in handling conflicts. - True
49. Criminal damage is the act of causing deliberate unlawful damage to someone's property. - True
50. The purpose of access control is to control exit from the premises. - False
51. Taxi companies are regulated by DPS. - True
52. The most common extinguisher which can be used for all classes of fire is DCP. - True
53. The Control Point is located just outside the "cordoned area". - True
54. Random Search procedure requires careful selection. - True
55. A male security guard can search a lady's handbag with prior permission from her. - True
56. Access Control involves "Handover" and "Takeover" conflicts. - True
57. Patrolling involves "Check-in" and "Check-out". - True
58. One can use a Water or Foam extinguisher for an electrical fire. - False
59. Random Search is used as a deterrent. - True
60. Specific Search is done for a specific purpose. - True

61. Manned Guarding involves services given by security guards. - True
62. There are six classes of fire. - False
63. The best way to communicate during an emergency is by "word of mouth". - False
64. DPA issues the security licenses for Security Guards. - False
65. A security guard may obtain a license even if he does not know Arabic. - False
66. We write reports to give information about the security issues on the site. - True
67. Patrol clocking devices are used to check the clocks on the premises. - True
68. A security guard is permitted to accept a passport as ID for issuing a visitor's pass. - True
69. A security guard may accept the photocopy of any valid UAE ID in order to issue a visitor's pass. - False
70. The witness to be present during a search can be an external client. - True
71. One can be polite and conduct a search even if you have not specifically asked for "PERMISSION". - False
72. The percentage of oxygen in the air is 21%. - True
73. The control room is there to provide "emergency back-up" to the security guard when needed. - True
74. All systems are electronic and are controlled through a control panel. - False
75. Access control is only for vehicles. - False
76. One of the important functions in Access Control is "Parking Control". - True
77. A Security guard who knows driving can drive a Patrol Vehicle even if he does not have UAE Driver's license. - False
78. A Red Health and Safety sign usually indicates PROHIBITION. - True
79. PPE is a health and safety requirement on all premises. - True
80. During an emergency, it is important for the guard to remain CALM. - True

Part 2: True or False

1. A Security Guard is a deterrent to crime. - True
2. Assignment Instructions are a good reference manual. - True
3. All Security Companies must register their activities with the DPS and obtain a license. - False
4. A Security Guard can give an opinion in court. - False
5. The Security Service provider should renew their employee's licenses within 28 days of the expiry date. - False
6. Hearsay evidence is admissible in court. - False
7. The maximum age for a security guard in Dubai is 55. - False
8. The minimum age for a Security Guard in Dubai is 19. - True
9. The Dubai Local Law that deals with Security is Law 37 of 2008. - False

10. Criminal Damage is the act of causing deliberate unlawfully damage to someone's property. - True
11. Licenses for Security Guards in Dubai are issued by the Police. - False
12. A False alarm is an alarm activation that causes the unnecessary attendance of emergency services. - True
13. Security Guards in Dubai must hold a license issued by SIRA. - True
14. It is permitted to discuss what a security guard does at his workplace with his family members or friends. - False
15. Security Guards in Dubai must have a good command of English or Arabic. - True
16. Criminal Law generally refers to Laws which carry a state penalty such as a fine or imprisonment. - True